

Lectionary Bible Study

For Sunday, March 2, 2025 (Transfiguration of our Lord)

Exodus 34:29-35

Discussion Starters

1. Why does the face of Moses shine? Why is that a cause for fear?
2. Why does Moses veil his face? Why does he remove the veil when he speaks with God?
3. What does this passage teach us about the relationship between Moses and God?
4. How is God's glory revealed in us today? How and why might we "veil" it?

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Discussion Starters

1. Why did the once glorious covenant of Moses have to be replaced by the everlasting covenant of Jesus?
2. What is the basis for Paul's hope and boldness?
3. What are the practical results of this new covenant?
4. What is the value of setting for the truth when proclaiming the Gospel?
5. Are our faces veiled now?

Luke 9:28-36

Discussion Starters

1. What is a "transfiguration?" What is important about it? Why do Lutherans commemorate the occurrence?
2. Why did Moses and Elijah appear with Jesus during this event?
3. Why did Peter want to build three shelters? Why was this not a good idea?
4. Why did the three disciples decide to keep what they had experienced to themselves (rather than immediately sharing it)?
5. Why would Jesus take those particular three disciples with Him up on the mountain?
